

I would like to see the Wisconsin "No Call" list continue. The harrassment that tele-marketers have brought in the past is an invasion of my privacy. I look for the government to support my rights and support the State of Wisconsin in maintaining this valuable service.